

Vandra Rugs

Maja's collection for Vandra Rugs brings her vision to life, merging traditional elements with modern design to create pieces that are both functional and artistically captivating.

Velvet Check: A contemporary twist on a classic checkered pattern, Velvet Check strikes a perfect balance between tradition and innovation. Handwoven with meticulous attention to detail and a touch of sparkle, this rug is ideal for making bold interior statements. Available in colourways White, Gold, Copper and Black & White.

Sea Meadow: Drawing inspiration from the sea, corals, and shells of the Gothenburg Archipelago, Sea Meadow is a handwoven masterpiece crafted with cotton stripes and linen yarn. It seamlessly blends the essence of a traditional Swedish rag rug with an original design. Available in colourways Oyster, Shell & Grass.

About Maja Johansson Starander

With a master's degree in woven textiles from the Royal College of Art, Maja has been designing rugs and collections since 2013 for global markets. Integrating her Scandinavian upbringing with international perspectives, she draws inspiration from diverse cultural influences and artistic exploration to craft tailor-made solutions for various spaces.

About Vandra Rugs

Vandra Rugs' handmade rugs blend design and craftsmanship, using high-quality natural materials like cotton, wool-felt, wool-yarn, and linen. Since 2007, they have established a weaving atelier in Ukraine, where skilled weavers, trained in local traditions and by Swedish experts, bring a rich diversity to the collections.

For media inquiries, please contact info@vandra-rugs.com

